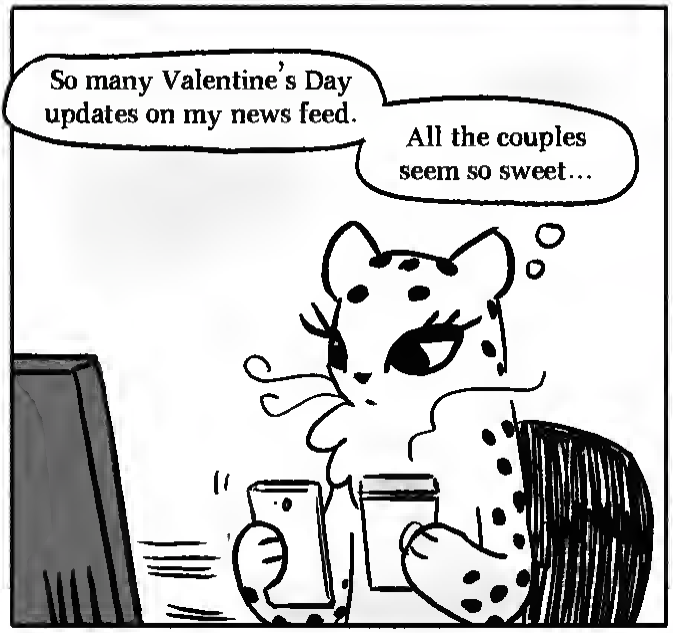
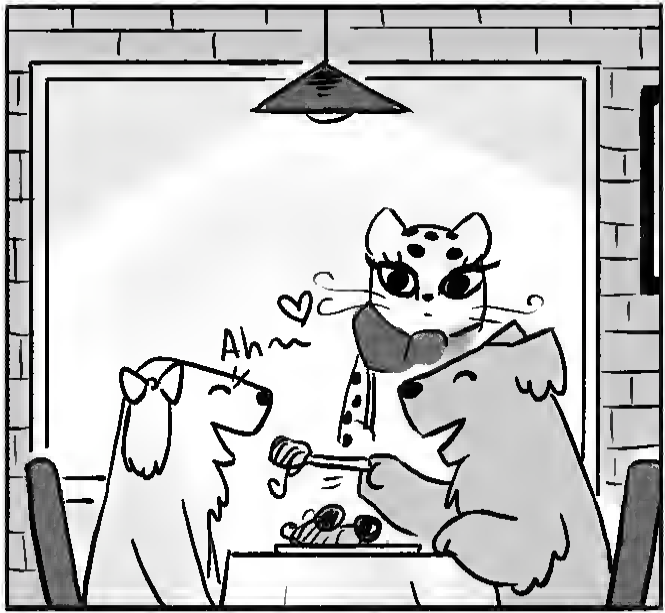
Vday with my love! #blessed



So many Valentine's Day updates on my news feed.
All the couples seem so sweet...

Valentine's Day

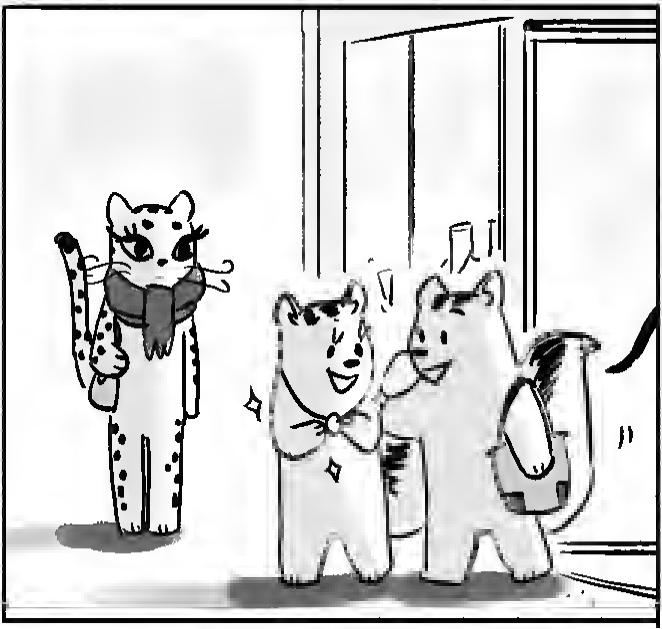
Dinner...
Vday Special!



Ah~~

It's okay. I can save money from the expensive candle light dinners.
Special!

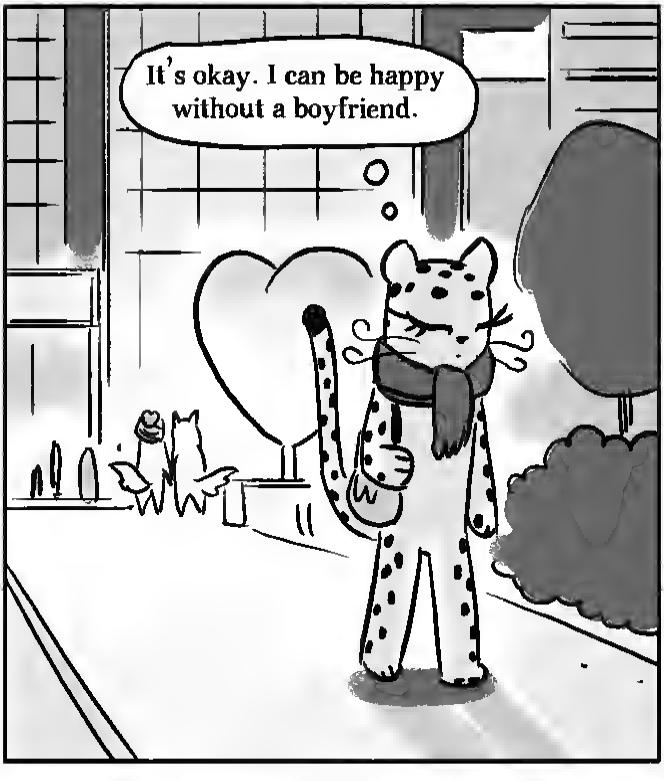
SW



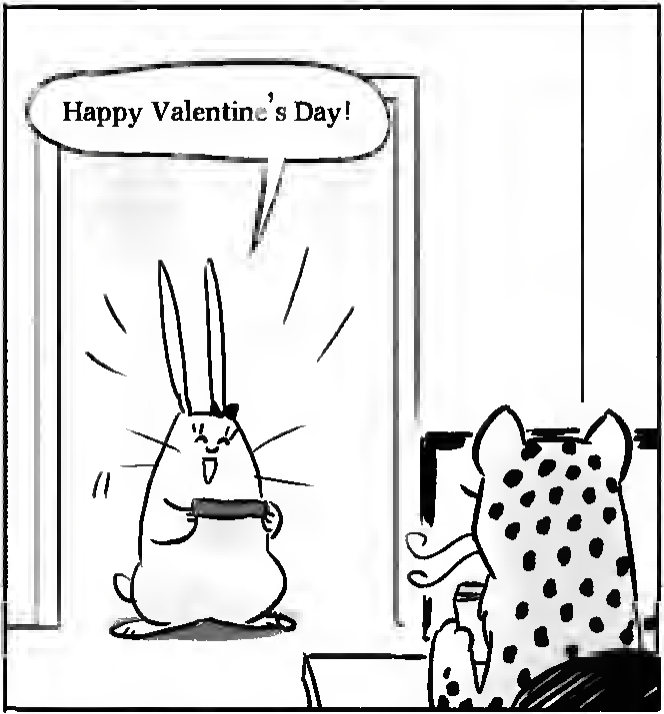
It's okay. I can save a lot of headache buying gifts.
SA

Smile!

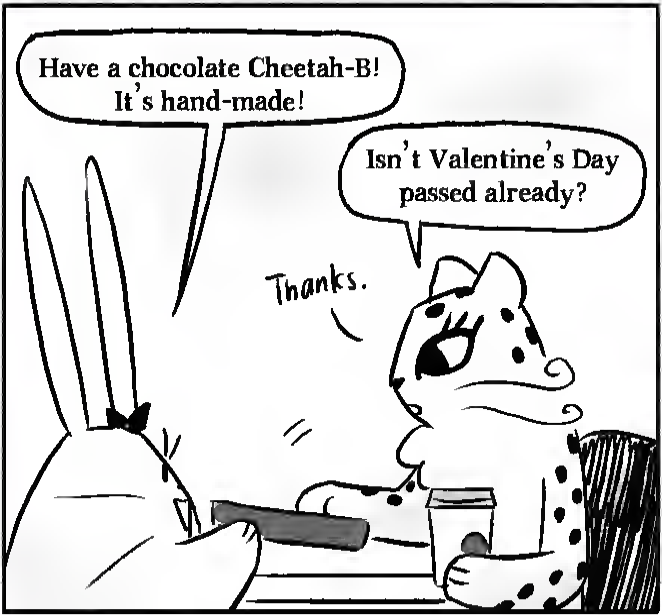
It's okay. I can have a lot of free time for myself.



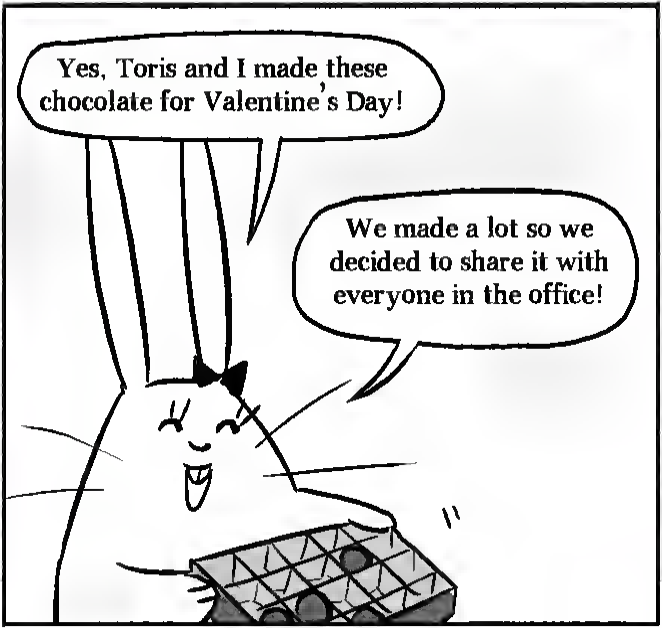
It's okay. I can be happy without a boyfriend.



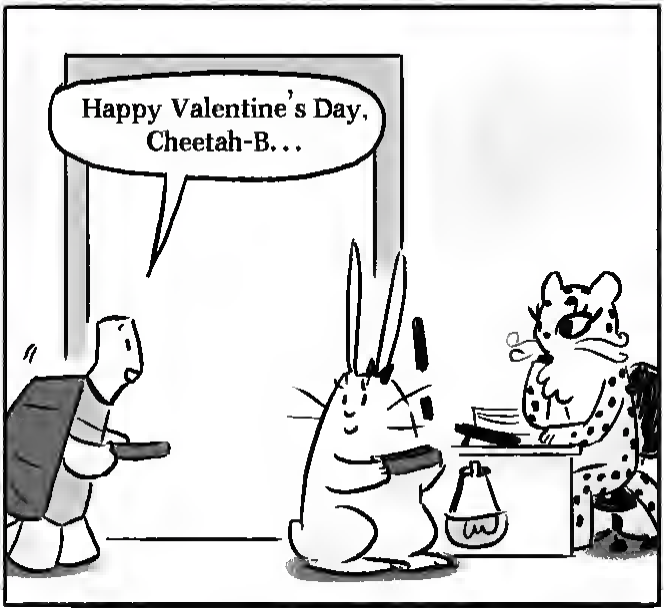
Happy Valentine's Day!



Have a chocolate Cheetah-B! It's hand-made!
Isn't Valentine's Day passed already?
Thanks.

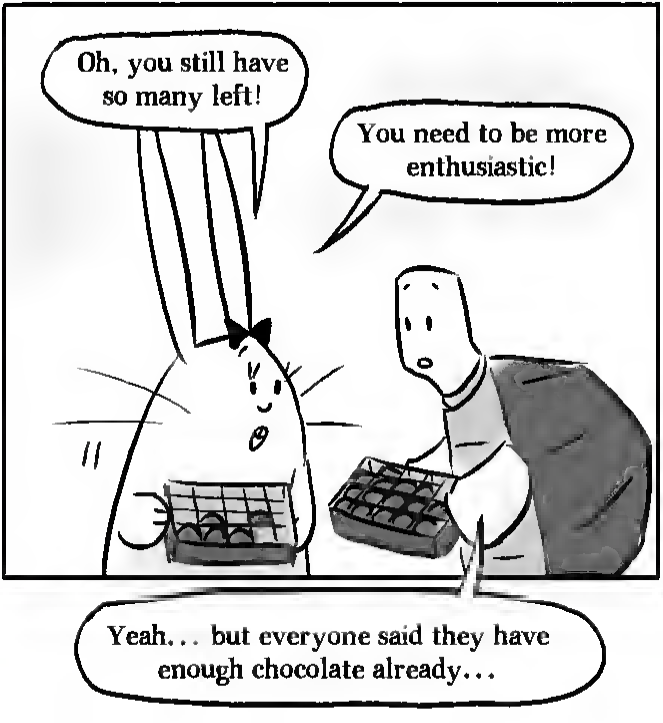


Yes, Toris and I made these chocolate for Valentine's Day!
We made a lot so we decided to share it with everyone in the office!



Happy Valentine's Day, Cheetah-B...

Thanks Tortis, I tried your chocolate. It's tasty.
Oh, thanks...



Oh, you still have so many left!
You need to be more enthusiastic!
Yeah... but everyone said they have enough chocolate already...

Thanks but no thanks...
I have sore throat and haven't fully recovered from the flu yet...
Ahem

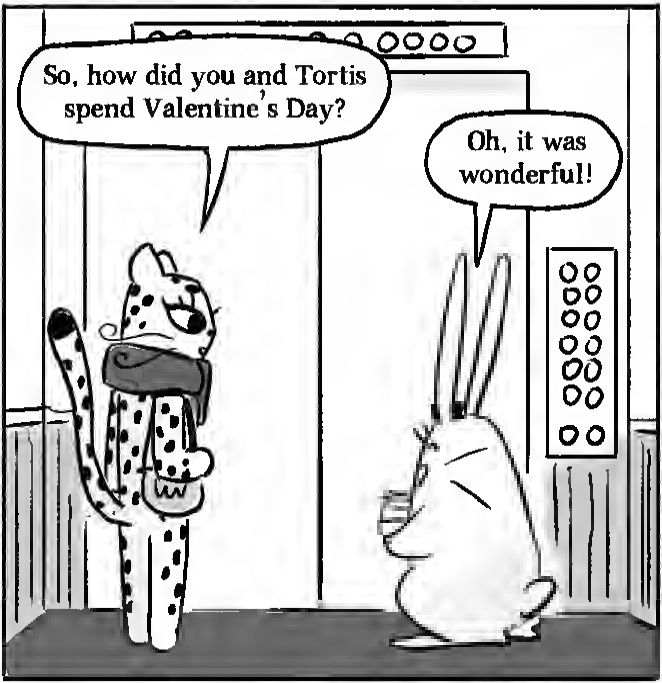
I have been snacking on lunar new year sweets for a week.
I wish to eat something else

We still have several boxes of leftover cakes and sweets from lunar new year.
I'm still wondering what to do with them.

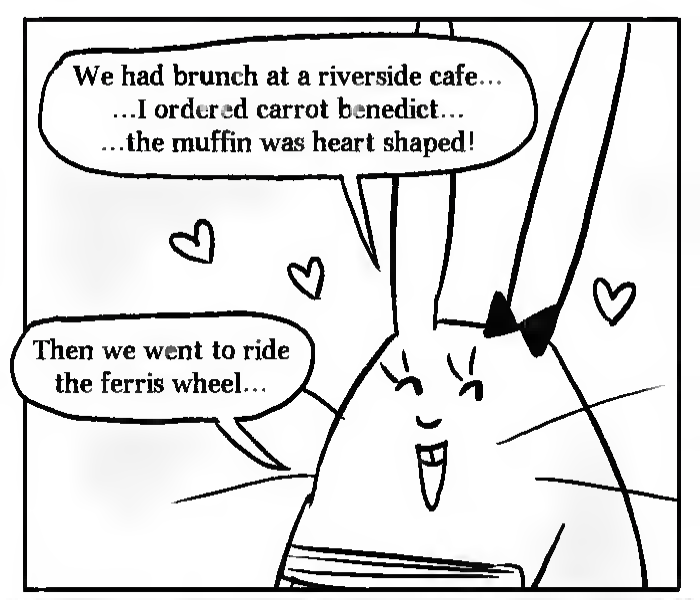
I can take all of them!
And the chocolate too!
My children can never get enough snacks!

That's it for today.

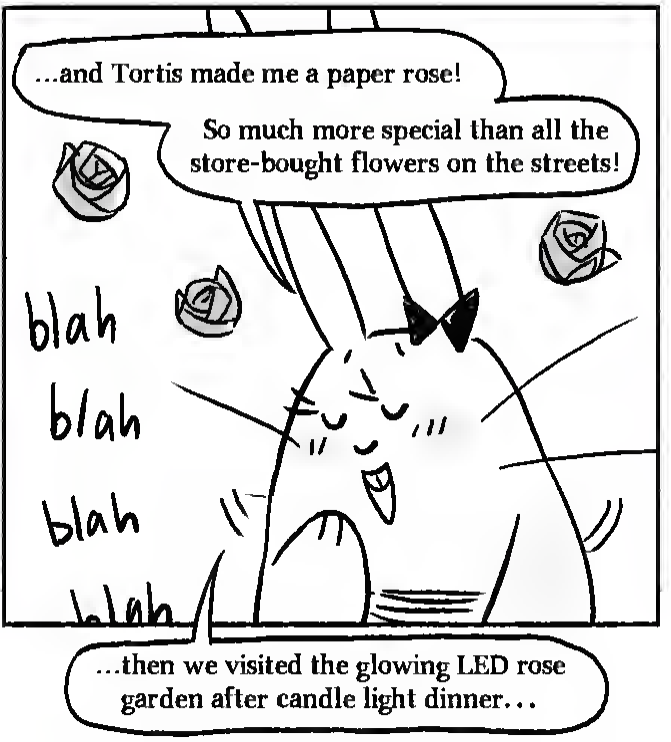
Hey Tiffany.
Cheetah-B! You're leaving?
Yeah.
Me too! I'm going to get my things at the reception.



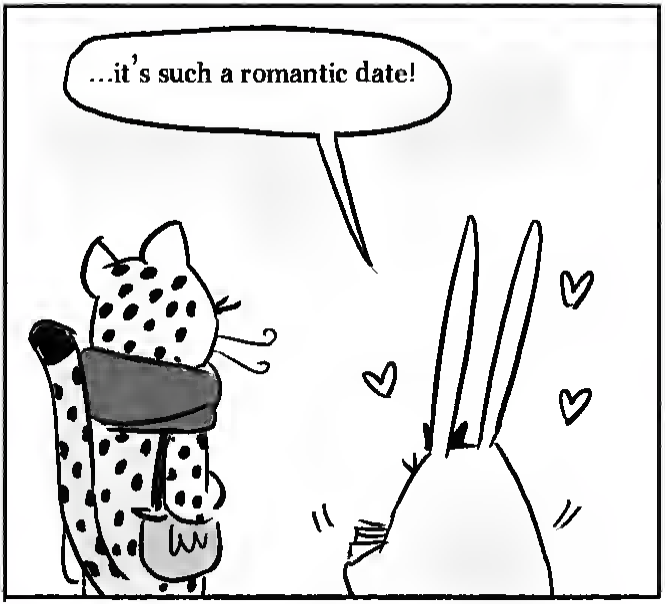
So, how did you and Tortis spend Valentine's Day?
Oh, it was wonderful!



We had brunch at a riverside cafe...
...I ordered carrot benedict...
...the muffin was heart shaped!
Then we went to ride the ferris wheel...



...and Tortis made me a paper rose!
So much more special than all the store-bought flowers on the streets!
blah
blah
blah
blah
...then we visited the glowing LED rose garden after candle light dinner...



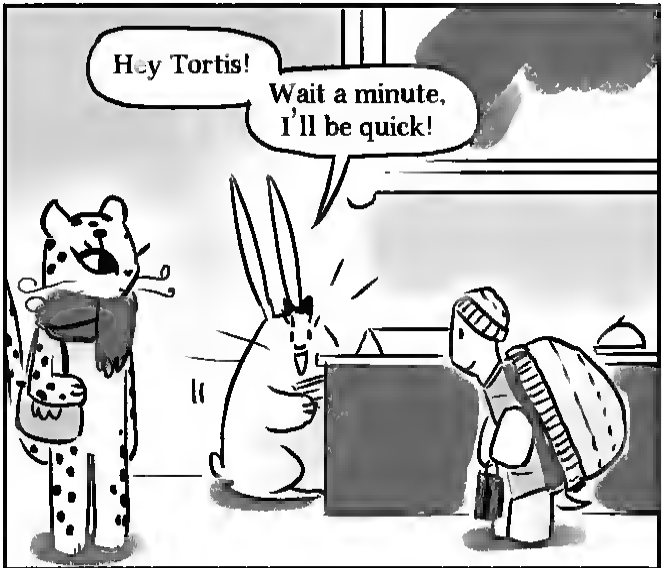
...it's such a romantic date!

How about you, Cheetah-B?
I just relaxed at home.

Better You!

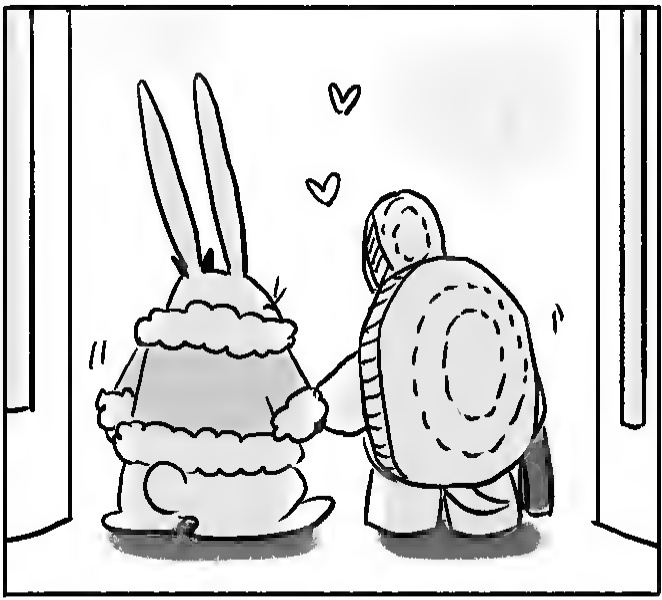
Well, that's nice too!
ding!

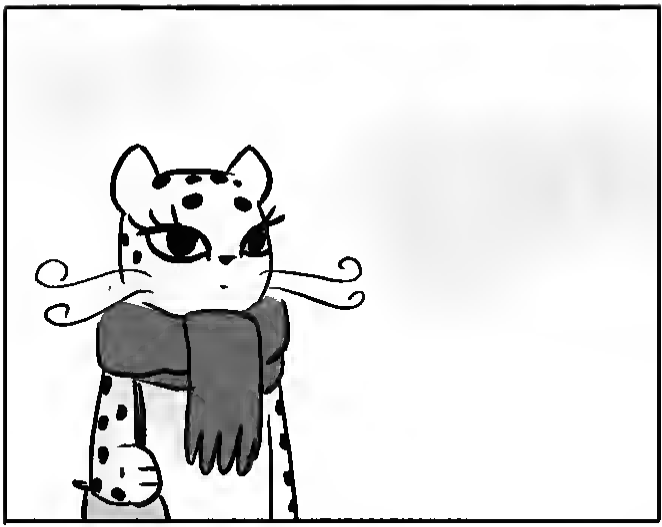
Oh, the peach blossom tree is still so pretty!
Go touch it before we clear the lunar new year decorations!

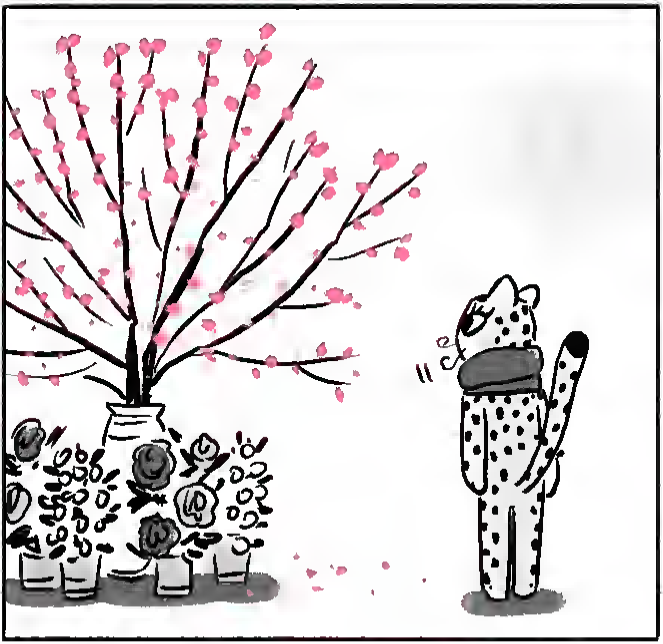


Hey Tortis!
Wait a minute, I'll be quick!

We're going to Tortis's friend gathering!
See you next week Cheetah-B!
Bye, have fun.







According to chinese tradition,
the peach blossom tree brings luck
to your love life in the new year.

桃花運

I don't believe in superstitions, but I guess it won't hurt touching a little...

I wish someone could spice up my love life.

Hi Bonnie! I'm from Vietnam.
Our national animal is the Buffalo :)

Readers from Vietnam!

Vietnam's national animal is the Water Buffalo. They are the farmer's most valuable possession and are treated as a family member. Children talk to their water buffalo and are responsible for feeding them.
